Dear Douglas:

Thank you for the computer programs.

You and I both know that our country needs a new direction. The Reagan-Bush years turned our nation away from the basic values it was founded on. The hard-working middle class has seen their economic interests ignored and their values tossed aside.

I'm running for President to turn this country around. We need to forge a New Covenant between the people and their leaders to restore Americans' faith in their government and a sense of community to our nation.

Our campaign's recent victories in New York, Wisconsin, and Kansas demonstrate that the American people are responding to our message. We now have over 1300 delegates and are closer than ever to winning the Democratic nomination. Our campaign is gaining momentum daily, and I know we can beat George Bush in the fall.

Thank you again for your support of my campaign.

Sincerely,
